

HILDALE AGAIN

This Time All-Stars Are Victims by Score of Eight to Three

Cochrall's classy twirling enabled Hilldale to defeat the All-Star Internationals yesterday afternoon, at Hilldale Park, by the score of 8 to 3. He only allowed six hits during the course of the game, and not a safe hit until the sixth inning, when Maley bounced one off his glove for a scratch single. He was opposed by Jack Powell, who formerly pitched for the St. Louis Americans, and who refused to report to Manager Barrow, of the Boston Red Sox this season. The latter was hit hard throughout the game, Lundy and Reese both nicking his delivery for three hits.
