

HILDALE GOES UNDER

Local Colored Team Beaten by Paterson Silk Sox, 4 to 0

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 15 (Special).—Paterson Silk Sox, of this city, defeated Hilldale, of Philadelphia, 4-0, in a game which was featured all the way through by a pitching battle between Talcott, of Paterson, and Williams, of Hilldale.

The latter held the winners to three measly singles until the eighth round, when Morris Shannon, formerly of the Athletics, opened the run-getting and before the side had been retired the Jerseymen had scored their four tallies. A big crowd witnessed the game, which was full of sensations with brilliant fielding on both sides.
