

PLENTY OF BASEBALL PROVIDED FOR FANS OF DALLAS TODAY.

Still contending in lively fashion for the city championship, the four city major league baseball teams will stage games at Seroco Park this afternoon. The first contest, to start at 3 o'clock, will be between the Bears and the Tigers, and the second between the Mahdeens and the Ahlfingers.

The Mahdeens are leading the other teams by one game, having defeated the Bears last Sunday. However, five more games are on the schedule, and there is the possibility that the standing will change many times before the season is over, as all four clubs are well balanced and are putting up a fine article of ball.

A double-header is also scheduled at Gardner Park this afternoon, when the Dallas Black Giants and the Fort Worth Wonders clash. The first game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. Dave Brown has been nominated to pitch for the Giants, while Big Shanks will do mound duty for the Panther City crew. Music will be furnished by a brass band. Seats will be reserved for white patrons.
