

SAN ANTONIO BLACK BRONCHOS PLAY DALLAS BLACK GIANTS HERE

The San Antonio Black Bronchos and the Dallas Black Giants will be the attraction at Gardner Park this afternoon and tomorrow. These games will no doubt be the best this season as it has been five years since the Black Bronchos appeared here and they were then the best in the league. This will no doubt be a pitchers' battle as Day Brown and Buck Alexander, without doubt one of the best pitchers in the country, will oppose one another.

To the games all soldiers, marines, enlisted and drafted men in uniform will be admitted to gate and grandstand free except the war tax.

Games will be called at 4 o'clock.
