

Negro League Starts.

The Texas Negro Baseball League recently organized with A. S. Wells, of Dallas, president and J. L. Dotson, of Fort Worth, secretary, will open the season Sunday at 3:30 p. m. at Panther Park with a setto between Fort Worth and the Dallas Black Giants. Hiram Morgan, owner of the Fort Worth team, has spared no expense in getting together the best aggregation of ball players he could gather.

The Negro League, composed of eight teams, will use the park during the absence of the white teams from their respective cities.
