

LOCALS-COLORED TEAM TO CLASH

ALL-WATERTOWN AND HAVANA
RED SOX AGREE ON TERMS

FOR GAME HERE SUNDAY

Will Meet at Garland City Park on a Winner Take All Basis—Managers Indulge in Stormy Session.

At the conclusion of a stormy session Wednesday night, in which the managers of the All-Watertown and Havana Red Sox baseball teams figured, a game was finally arranged for the two local teams to clash at Garland City Park Sunday afternoon at 3:15. An agreement was reached whereby the winner of this important struggle will take all of the gate receipts after the war tax of ten per cent has been deducted.

Early this week the manager of the Havana Red Sox hurled a challenge at the Watertown management for a game here Sunday. The Red Sox manager said things in a letter to the press which did not set well with the Watertown management and the Watertown manager Wednesday night hurled back an equally as "touching" missive as was published by the Havana Red Sox manager the night before.

Sunday's game is well understood by all local fandom as a championship tilt for the honors of the city of Watertown and north country. Both teams have supporters and each faction will back its team to the limit.

The All-Watertown management is confident that the white team can beat the colored aggregation and therefore they have insisted on playing for the entire gate receipts. All-Watertown basis its claim on the championship thus far by virtue of three victories out of four games played against the Havana Red Sox. They admit that Watkin's aggregation is much stronger than when they first played them but claim that they have also beaten the best that Pop Watkins staged here later this season. Watertown also claims to have a much stronger team than the outfit that played the colored team in the last game played between these teams several weeks ago.

The Havana Red Sox management now claims to have a well drilled combination and smile at the chance to play for the entire gate receipts. They claim that All-Watertown will be sidetracked from their path at the conclusion of Sunday's tilt and have many backers who will bet that All-Watertown will lose.

At the outset of Wednesday night's meeting the Watertown management are quoted as saying that the colored management, who control Garland

City Park, attempted to obtain the Watertown team to play for 35 per cent of the gate receipts. This offer was flatly refused and after some hot arguments, terms were settled on a winner take all basis.
