

The Black Sox, Baltimore's speedy colored nine, did not have to work hard to down Sam Cole's All-Stars at American League Park in a seven-inning, 9 to 1 game. Smith, Black Sox pitcher, was faced by only sixteen batters in the first five innings.

Evening Star, Washington, DC

Friday, August 13, 1920, Page 14, Column 4