

Black Sox Land.

The Black Sox of Baltimore did not have much of a stumbling block in the Sam Cole All Stars yesterday when they took them into camp on the long end of a 9-to-1 score. The rain stopped the contest in the seventh inning. Smith, pitching for the Black Sox, had only sixteen men to face him in the first five innings, one of that number obtaining a base on balls.

The fielding of Ridgeley, who played second base for the victors, featured the game. He accepted all his chances in fine style and garnered four hits. The score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Black Sox...	1	5	0 0 0 3 0—9 9 1
All Stars....	0	0	0 0 0 1 0—1 5 7

Batteries — Smith and Thomas;
Hanes and Greenfield.

Washington Herald, Washington, DC

Friday, August 13, 1920, Page 9, Column 7