

FOSTER'S GIANTS PLAY NEW YORK STARS HERE

Rube Foster's Chicago-American Giants, rated as the best colored team in the country, will play the New York All-Stars at American League Park tomorrow afternoon. Last Sunday more than eight thousand attended the game here when Foster's team played. The game starts at 3 o'clock.

The Chicago-American Giants have been playing at Atlantic City since leaving here and have met with success.

Washington Times, Washington, DC

Saturday, August 3, 1918, Page 12, Column 5