

The Portland club has played three or four games in Honolulu but the Beavers have not met any of the Hawaiian teams so far, playing inter-team games. Down in southern California baseball has been played all winter, while the well-known American Giants and the Chicago Giants, both colored teams of much fame, are at present playing a series of games at Palm Beach for the entertainment of the visitors at the winter resort. The American Giants are playing under the name of the Breakers hotel, while the Chicago Giants represent the Poincare hotel.
