

BROWN TENNESSEE RATS are playing the best baseball of their career, having defeated the Lost Island Giants two out of three at Arnold's Park in Ruthven, Ia., last week. The Giants winning one game by the score of 1-0. Jack Marshall pitching for the Rats and Tyree, formerly of the American Giants, for the Los Islands. Only one scratch hit was made off the margin, while Tyree struck out 14 men but allowed five hits. The second game played before 4,000 people was won 5-4. The third game was 3-1. The Tennessee Rats will be seen in Kansas City in the near future.

---

Kansas City Sun, Kansas City, MO

Saturday, June 30, 1917, Page 8, Column 3