

Manager Rube Foster and 18 American Giants will leave tonight for Palm Beach, Fla., to pass the winter season. The Giants will practice for ten days, then will represent the Royal Ponciana hotel against the Lincoln Giants of New York, representing the Breakers' hotel. Other games also will be played before the Chicagoans start northward, March 17. The opening game here will be April 22.

The Day Book, Chicago, IL

Friday, January 12, 1917, Page 11, Column 2