

ROYALS VS. LINCOLNS.

Teams Will Resume Series at Olympic Field To-day.

The Royal Giants and the Lincoln Giants will continue their little world's series struggle at Olympic Field on Sunday when they clash in their ninth and tenth games. To date the title series is even, each team having won four games. The Royals evened matters a fortnight ago by winning, 9 to 2 and 7 to 5, but at the time the Lincolns were without the services of their star hurler, Cyclone Joe Williams.

Williams will pitch this Sunday against Lefty Harvey. With Williams on the mound the Lincolns feel confident they will turn the tables on their rivals to-day. In the second game Langford and McDonald will probably be the pitchers, although Williams may pitch both games.

The Sun, New York, NY

Sunday, September 16, 1917, Section 2, Page 4, Column 1