

ROYALS VS. LINCOLN GIANTS.

Will Play Double Header at Olympic Field.

The Lincoln Giants and the Royal Giants will continue their series for the colored championship of the East at Olympic Field, 136th street and Fifth avenue, this afternoon. The teams to date have met in ten games, of which the Royals have won five and lost four and one resulted in a 4 to 4 tie. The rivalry between the teams is keen and the wagering on the outcome is exceptionally heavy. The Lincolns will pit Cyclone Joe Williams, king of the semi-pro hurlers, against Lefty Harvey in the second game, and McDonald and Langford will meet in the curtain raiser.

The teams are evenly matched and should furnish the fans with plenty of excitement. Both have many backers and a considerable sum will change hands on the series results.
