

ROYALS VS. LINCOLNS.

Two of New York's leading semi-professional teams, the Royal Giants and the Lincoln Giants, will be pitted against each other in a double header at Olympic Field, 136th street and Fifth avenue, to-morrow. The teams will meet in the first of a series of ten games which will decide the colored championship of Greater New York. Last season they met in a ten game series, and each team won four, the remaining two resulting in ties. Stringbean Williams and Cyclone Joe Williams will be the rival pitchers in the feature tilt.

The Sun, New York, NY

Saturday, May 5, 1917, Page 13, Column 6