

Rube Foster Gets Surprise

Rube Foster, millionaire manager of the Chicago Colored Giants, had the surprise of his life yesterday at Puyallup when Joe McGinnity's crew of Butte Miners, in training less than a week, took the skilfull colored team to camp with a 6 to 3 score. There were 1,000 spectators.

Five of the Miners' runs came in the first, the Butte boys batting Bancroft with gusto. McGinnity pitched the first five innings, and Meikle finished the job.

The Tacoma Times, Tacoma, WA

Tuesday, April 18, 1916, Page 6, Column 1