

Charles W. Murphy, former Cub president, and Jake Stahl, who piloted the Boston Red Sox to a world's championship some years back, have accepted nominations as an advisory committee on bylaws and constitution for the Chicago Baseball league, the new semi-pro circuit. A. F. Sheahan was unanimously named president at a meeting yesterday in the Hotel La Salle. Other officers are: John J. Callahan, vice president; Bill Niesen, secretary; Warren Hill, treasurer; Jimmy Hutton, sergeant-at-arms. Owners or delegates with power to act from the following park clubs voted: Garden City, South Chicago, Normals, Joliet, Logan Square and West Sides. Two other leading park teams are being considered as members. Final action on applications was deferred until next week's meeting. Sec'y Niesen, 4750 N. Hermitage av., is in charge of the travelers' applications.

Among the independent moguls in attendance were: M. J. and J. J. Stapleton, Normals; A. Sievers, Ciceros; Jim Simes, Joliet; A. J. Chubb, Beloit; Hinkel and Goodman, Garden City; Mike Heckinger, John J. Callahan, Logan Square; Warren Hill, South Chicago; Bert Fairchild, West Sides; Jimmy Keown; Louis Gertenrich, Wm. Peters, Union Giants; W. H. Nolan, H. A. Simmons, Braves; R. T. Carroll, Merrimacs; Jos Logan, Galligans; John Rogers, Rogers Park; Bill Harley, Waukegan.

The Day Book, Last Edition, Chicago, IL

Monday, February 26, 1917, Page 11, Columns 1 and 2