

BARONS BREAK EVEN WITH FAST GIANTS BY CLEVER PLAYING

Calhoun's Men Get to Pitcher
Josh For Six Runs in Second Inning

CAVIN SLAMS PELLETT

Youthful Third Baseman Cracks Out Triple With Bases Filled to Limit

Outplaying the Brooklyn Royal Giants all the way, the Barons defeated their dusky opponents in easy fashion yesterday by the score of 10 to 2. It was fine revenge for the beating sustained by the locals Wednesday and the few fans in attendance were much pleased with the result.

On the firing line for the locals were Beretski and Verbout, both of whom hurled fine ball. The Baron pitchers went so well that they allowed chocolate tinted rivals but five hits and two runs. Both markers were made while Beretski was on the mound. Verbout seemed to have everything and blanked the opposition.

A coal black product of 125th street and Lexington avenue by the name of Josh tried to pitch for the Royal Giants. The Barons went after him early and it was a very dark afternoon for Mr. Josh, who seemed to be much pleased when Umpire Brieger called off hostilities at the end of the eighth inning.

The Barons went in a hitting mood and what they did to their rivals was a very bitter medicine. They tallied once in the first inning and six more in the second. Cavin had much to do with the scoring, cracking out a triple with the bases clogged. The Calhoun clan sent three more runs across in the seventh inning, just by way of rubbing it in. Score:
