
"RUBE" STALLS FOR RAIN AND THE GAME IS FORFEITED.

"Our Heroes" Get to the Mighty Wick-ware, Who Tires Under the Broil-ing Sun—And Dismukes Kept Smiling.

(By "Young" Knox.)

The A. B. C.'s and "Rube" Foster's American Giants of Chicago, staged one of the best games of the season at Federal Park last Sunday, the game ending in the last half of the eighth inning on account of rain and "other things."

The score was 3 to 2 in favor of the Giants. Whitworth had relieved Wickware in the eighth when "Our Heroes" come to bat. Shively led off with a hot single. DeMoss was walked by Whitworth and then Gatewood who had relieved Whitworth, walked both Charleston and Taylor, forcing one run over and tying the score. Umpire Geisel then forfeited the game after more intentional delay on the part of the Chicago players, who were trying to slow up the contest until rain came.

The game was replete with brilliant plays that kept the large crowd on its feet most of the time. Ben Taylor, Shively, DeMoss and Bauchman did sensational work in the field.
