

"OUR HEROES" WIN ON BLUE MONDAY.

Giants and A. B. C.s in a Thriller and Taylor's Men Win 7 to 4.

Another record crowd turned out Monday at Northwestern Park and was rewarded by seeing the A. B. C.'s again defeat the American Giants, 7 to 4. The fielding of both teams was sensational, many difficult catches and stops being made. McNair, Francis and Jeffries were the stars. Powell caught a great game.

The local champs hit the ball hard in the second and third frames, knocking Gatewood out of the box. Foster, who relieved him, held the local boys to one run. Hutchinson and Francis of the visitors clouted out home runs.

The third game of the series will be played at Northwestern Park this afternoon. The Giants will use Wickware in the box. Manager Taylor will send his star hurler, Dismukes, back again.; Score:

Giants	-----	2	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	4	9	1
A. B. C.'s	-----	0	3	3	0	0	0	1	0	*	7	8	1

Batteries—Gatewood, Foster and Allison; Charleston and Powell.
