

"OUR HEROES" MAKE IT THREE IN ROW OVER THE GIANTS.

Dismukes Holds Chicago Team Safe
After Hill Stops Knocking Home Runs.

The A. B. C.'s defeated the American Giants again Wednesday at Northwestern Park, 5 to 3, making it three straight. The Giants took an early lead, due to the batting of Hill, who clouted out home runs in the first and second innings, scoring a runner ahead of him in the second. From the third on Dismukes held the Windy City aggregation safe. The fielding of Clark and Charleston featured. The Lincoln Stars of New York play the A. B. C.'s at Federal Park Sunday. Score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Jess Barber is playing a grand game and hitting hard.

Kenneth, the little son of Captain Pete Hill, was with the team.

Jack Watts, the boxing catcher of the Giants, played nicely during the series.

Bauchman, the Omaha, Neb., boy, is making good at second and is in the game at all times.

Horace Jenkins was greatly peeved Sunday; the Umps shaded him on strikes. Jenks is hitting the ball hard and made friends during his stay.

Mr. E. J. Sheehan, secretary of the American Giants, witnessed the game Sunday, returning home early Monday morning. Eddle is a prince chap and took in the sights of the Freeman Sunday night.

Word reached Chicago that several members of the Giants were injured during Sunday's game which was untrue. However, there was plenty of excitement. Every member received a telegram except Wickware. Lookout for that "Fungo" Club.

A bets B that if the home team would have scored two runs in the eighth inning in Sunday's game, none out and rain stopped the game, the A. B. C.'s would have won 4 to 3, while B bets the game would be called back to the seventh, leaving the score a tie 2 to 2. Who wins?
