

AMERICAN GIANTS DISPOSE OF SILK KAVANAUGH'S TEAM 8 TO
3—THIRD GAME FOR "RUBE."

(By Cary B. Lewis.)

CHICAGO, Ill., May 12.—(Special)—Last Sunday's game made three straight for Mr. Foster and his American Giants. There is no doubt now in the minds of Chicagoans that he hasn't a great team. Every member of the team has exhibited splendid ability and not a "bone head" play has been made this season by a man on the team. Hutchinson, the short stop, is doing some clever work at the post held by Lloyd last year. The day was chilly and many of those who sat in boxes went over in the bleachers for the shade and enjoyed seeing Barber around first as well as the Giants winning with ease. There was nothing sensational in the game. The visitors were a picked team from minor and major leagues but these supposed professionals could not do anything with Jenkins while the home boys played with Juul and Metz the Kavanaugh's star pitchers. The American Giants got four hits off Juul in the fourth inning.
