
THREE-GAME SERIES MAY CLOSE HIBBING SEASON

HIBBING, Aug. 26. — Starting tomorrow Hibbing baseball fans will see one of the last of games to be played here this season. The Chicago Colored Giants, considered one of the fastest independent teams, will oppose Brady's Colts.

In the game at Virginia the Colts, crippled by the loss of Carroll Booth at second base and Bob Geiselman in right field, and Captain Edmunds, backstop and mainstay, who played right field, but was unable to catch because of a sore hand, were defeated by the Giants by a score of 12 to 6. Wilson started the game for the Hibbing nine, but was replaced by Williams. Kriz of Chisholm caught.

It is probable, according to Judge Brady, that the Sunday game will be the last game here this season. It is expected that one of the largest crowds of the season will attend. Judge Brady has announced that all games will begin at 3 o'clock.
