
DISMUKES AND REDDING IN PITCHERS' BATTLE

"Our Hero" Shades the "Cannon Ball"
and the A.'s Score a 2-to-1 Victory
Over Lincoln Stars of New York.

By "Young" Knox.

It was "Smiling" Dismukes against "Cannon Ball" Redding Sunday at Federal park and "Dizzy" pitching true to form, brought home the "bacon," shading the speedy Redding in one of the best games of the season.

"Cannon Ball" Redding lived up to his record as a great pitcher and in the sixth inning, with DeMoss on third and Charleston on second and none out, he intentionally passed the slugging Ben Taylor, then fanned Clark and Powell and forced Allen to roll an easy one to Kindle.

DeMoss' all round work was a feature for the A's. Score:
