

A. B. C.'S LOSE TO THE ALL LEAGUERS BEFORE LARGE CROWD—PITCHER CHARL- ESTON LOOKS TO BE A WONDER.

The All Leagues and A. B. C.'s put up an excellent exhibition of base ball Sunday at Northwestern park, the former winning 6 to 4 after a hard struggle. A large crowd attended the game and was kept on their feet throughout the contest by many sensational stops and catches.

The fielding of Darringer at short, who has been a member of the Kansas City Feds for the past two seasons, Trench at second and a sensational catch by Tisse of Charleston's line drive featured for the leaguers. Clark and Ben Taylor were in the limelight for the colored champs. Clare had several difficult chances which he handled with ease, while Taylor accepted everything that came his way. Both Powell and Schissel caught good games.

Although Charleston lost his game, he is one of the most promising young pitchers seen at Northwestern park. He pitches like a veteran, besides fielding his position and batting in great fashion. The fans should watch this youngster, he will be one of the best.

The leagues scored three in the first inning, Darringer singled, Trench fanned, Darringer stole second and scored on Orme's single. Orme tried to take third on Totton's easy grounder but was out Charleston to Allen. Charleston threw one to Fisse's liking which was clouted over the fence for a home run, scoring Totten ahead of him.

Darringer's single and two errors by Briggs put another across the rubber in the third. Connaughton and Schissel singled in the fourth, the former being pushed across the plate on a sacrifice hit by Hancock, and a sacrifice fly by Darringer. The last run for the leaguers was a home run by Totten which barely dropped through the fence.

The first run of the champs came in the third when Charleston hit one to the right field fence for a home run, one of the longest drives seen at the local park. Ben Taylor opened the fourth with a single, but was out at the plate when he tried to score on Powell's double. Powell took third on the throw to the plate and scored on a wild pitch by Hancock. Clark walked in the eighth after Shively flew out to Tisse, Allen walked. Allen was out at second on B. Taylor's grounder to Trench, Clark taking third and scoring on Darringer's error. Davis walloped out a double which scored Taylor.

The same clubs play again next Sunday.

Notes of the Game.

Our boys looked fine in their new uniforms.

---

Todd Allen certainly looks mighty good at third.

---

Charleston's home run in the third inning was the longest hit ever made to right field in the park.

---

Morty Clark is a whirlwind at short-stop and a few more days like Sunday will make us all forget Hutch.

---

Tom Johnson, the best pitcher with the Mohawk Giants last year, has signed an A. B. C. contract and will show Sunday.

---

Dismukes, with Lincoln Stars of New York, and the premier colored pitcher in the east, has decided to come west this year. He has come to terms with Manager Taylor and will be here Sunday.
