
SPRUDELS WIN FROM LOUISVILLE.

Special to The Freeman.

WEST BADEN, Ind., April 21.—
 "Splitball" Miller held the Louisville White Sox after the fourth inning in what was a great pitcher's battle. The game was interesting from the gong. The crowd went wild in the eighth when the Sprudels made four runs, winning easily: Score:

White Sox	--	4	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—4	6	5
Sprudels.	----	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	4	•	—5	8	2

Batteries—Ragsdale and Jones; Miller and Kinnard.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, Indiana

Saturday, April 24, 1915, Page 5, Column 6