

WEST BADEN SPRUDELS BREAK ST. LOUIS GIANTS' WINNING STREAK.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 31.—The West Baden Sprudels shattered the Giants' winning streak by nosing out Charlie Mills' team 2 to 1 today. The Giants could not bunch hits on Casey, the Baden twirler. Smith, the new Giants pitcher, did well, allowing 6 hits. In Sunday's game the Giants beat the visitors 5 to 2. The Sprudels made only 3 hits off Williams. About 7,000 persons witnessed the two games.

Score by innings—

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
St. Louis	1	1	0	0	0	1	2	0	X	5	9	3
West Baden	0	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	2	3	2

Batteries—St. L., Williams and Webster; W. Baden, Miller and Kennard.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
St. Louis	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	6	3
West Baden	0	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	0	2	7	1

Batteries—St. L., Smith and Cobb; W. Baden, Casey and Kennard.

The Memphis Giants will be the next opponent of the St. Louis team, June 6-7-8.

Indianapolis Freeman, Indianapolis, Indiana

Saturday, June 5, 1915, Page 5, Column 6