

LAST ONE TO GIANTS.

A. B. C.'s Are Beaten in Deciding Game of Series at Chicago— Score, 2-1.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Two misjudged flies gave the American Giants the deciding game of their series with the A. B. C. team of Indianapolis today at Schorlings Park, 2 to 1. The Giants landed their first score on doubles by Hutchinson and Bockman in the second round, Demoss failing to get up on Bockman's Texas leaguer. The second tally came after Barber had shot a liner through second, Jenkins lifting a tall fly to center that Charleston failed to get under. Singles by Shively and Allen in the sixth round gave the Indianapolis team its lone count. Score:
