

"CYCLONE" JOE TO PITCH FOR SOX

HE WILL OFFICIATE IN THURS-DAY'S GAME

SERIES WITH ALL-STARS

State League Presents Its Finest in Endeavor to Lower Colors of Dusky Ball Tossers.

The baseball series of three games between the Havana Red Sox and the All-Star State League team to be played at Garland City Park will open Thursday afternoon. The two remaining games will be played on Friday and Saturday at the park. The State League team will use in this series, Frank Brower, one of the greatest ball twirlers of the state, and who will play with the New York Giants next season. Another pitcher who will be used against the Red Sox in this series is Fred Taylor, the Utica State League pitcher. The All-Star team presents one of the best baseball teams in the state, and their manager announces that they come here for the express purpose of taking the colored team's scalp.

Frank Brower, the All-Star pitcher, who will be seen in action in Thursday's game.

Pitcher Fred Taylor, who pitches during the series against the Red Sox.

The Red Sox have picked the very cream of their baseball organization for the contests, and have secured "Cyclone" Joe William, said to be, in the New York papers, the greatest pitcher in the world, either colored or white. "Cyclone" Joe will decorate the mound for the Red Sox Thursday.

The Red Sox line-up to be used in the coming series follows: Pitcher, "Cyclone" Joe William; catcher, Sandtop; first base, T. Allen; second, Hank William; shortstop, Dandridge; third, Borden; leftfield, Gary; centre-field, Poles; rightfield, Dixon.

"Cyclone" Joe has pitched against and defeated all of the major league wonders, such as Mathewson, Plank, Johnson and others. He is a member of the famous Lincoln Giants. Sandtop, the other Brooklyn lad, stands six feet, two inches.

Watertown Daily Times, Watertown, NY

Wednesday, September 29, 1915, Page 6, Column 6