

STARS AND A. B. C.S IN A DRAWN BATTLE

Frank Metz's Team^o and Colored Champs Go Twelve Innings, 3 and 3—Throw by McCarty in Ninth Features Contest.

Metz's All-Stars battled the A. B. C.s twelve innings at Federal Park Sunday, 3 to 3, when darkness necessitated a halt. The contest was a thriller and probably with more teamwork the leaguers would have scored a victory over the colored champs. As it was the 3,000 or more fans present saw a spley game. Swell stops and neat catches were frequent, while Johnny McCarty's wonderful throw to the plate in the ninth inning fairly 'set the white' fans wild.

Clark, the speedy A. B. C., was first up in the ninth and went all the way to third when Pick heaved over Metz's head. Powell lifted a fly to left center and after the catch Clark dashed for the plate, with what he thought was the winning run. McCarty shot the ball on the dead line toward home, and one neat hop put the pellet into Catcher Vann's glove ahead of the runner.

Joe Willis hurled the first five innings for the All-Stars and then retired on account of an aching arm. Hewes went to the mound and twirled great ball the remainder of the game. An error coming after the side should have been retired enabled the A. B. C.s to score twice in the third. Then a mixture of hits and bad throws gave the All-Stars three markers in the fourth. The count was knotted in the sixth, and it remained knotted.

Crandall Metz and McCarty played the best ball for the All-Stars, while the fielding of DeMoss and Allen and the hitting of Charleston featured the A. B. C.s' play. Dismukes showed his class as a pitcher by taking the mound for the A. B. C.s in the sixth and not allowing a hit. Score:
