

TAYLOR'S A. B. C.'S WIN EASILY.

Permits the Local Team To Score
One Run—Indianapolis Piled Up Eight.

ANDERSON, Ind.—Taylor's A. B. C.'s club defeated the local club last Sunday and the visiting boys had everything their own way, hitting Skyock hard in the first three frames. The fielding by the home team throughout the contest was so poor that the visitors making the most of their mistakes.

Anderson was in great form, allowing only one run, both coming after the game had been retired in the first inning. Taylor's hitting was a feature, scoring a triple being his best effort. The largest crowds that have ever witnessed a local game witnessed this contest.
