

ROYALS VS. LINCOLN GIANTS.

Crack Teams Will Meet in a Double Header at Ridgewood.

The third and fourth games in the special series between the Royal Giants and the Lincoln Giants will be played this Sunday at Wallace's Ridgewood Grounds, Halsey Street and Wyckoff Avenue. The teams clashed at Olympic Field two weeks ago and the Royals won. In those contests, however, the Royals had to play as they seldom are called upon in order to carry off the honors.

The Royals, with the addition of Santop and Lefty Harvey, former battery of the Lincoln Stars, feel confident they can repeat, while the Lincoln Giants are equally confident they will turn the tables on their opponents. Redding and Williams will be on the firing line for the Lincolns. Ridgewood's banner crowd likely will see the teams in action Sunday.
