

ROYALS VS. BUSHWICKS.

Will Wind Up Series in Double Bill at Dexter Park.

The last games in the series between the Royal Giants and the Bushwicks, champions of Brooklyn, will be played to-morrow afternoon at Dexter Park, near the Cypress Hills "L." These teams are evenly matched and two more good games are assured. Williams and Spires will be the Bushwick pitchers and Brookes and Kenyon will hurl for the Royals.

Santop, home run king of the semi-pros, will be seen behind the bat for the Royals. Santop has been hitting many circuit drives in road games, and may continue his spurt in Brooklyn to-day. The Royals will leave shortly for a tour of the South.

The Sun, New York, NY

Tuesday, September 2, 1919, Page 18, Column 8