

BUSHWICKS PLAY TWO.

Will Tackle the Strengthened Royal Giants To-day.

At Dexter Park, near the Cypress Hills "L" station, this afternoon the Royal Giants will clash with the Bushwicks in a double header. The day will be "Salvation Army Sunday." The Royals will have out all their stars, while the Bushwicks will have their regular team, with Maloney and Kimball doing the pitching.

The Royals have been strengthened by the addition of Santop, catcher, and Dilworth, a southpaw. Dilworth comes from Texas highly recommended. Santop is still in the army, but expects to be released by to-morrow.

The Sun, New York, NY

Sunday, May 25, 1919, Sports Page 4, Column 3