NOTES OF THE GAME.

Dismukes struck out ten of the visitors without much exertion.

Scotty Frazier was busy collecting change after the game.

Briggs at second handled everything in fine style and securing a hit.

Manager Taylor used two of his pitchers in the field--Jeffries and Charleston.

Little Shively went up the hill in the eighth and rolled down but still held the ball.

Charleston and Powell dropped one in the lake and received $1.00 from owner Bowser.

The sensational Morty Clark crossed second in the seventh and got his man at first by a step. It was a fine piece of fielding and the fans applauded.

Ben Taylor, the demon slugger of the A. B. C.'s was there with a single and two three-basers, even if he did pull a "Casey" in the sixth. Ben is a favorite with the fans.

Todd Allen, the "Old Reliable" looked familiar at third base, handling everything clean that came his way. The ex-captain hit one to deep center for the circuit and to show that he could run some, he scored from first on a single in the seventh—some boy that Todd.
