

A. B. C.'s DOWN SPRUDELS IN DOUBLE-HEADER ATTRACTION

The A. B. C.s won a double-header from the West Baden Sprudels Sunday at Federal Park. The local champs romped away with the first contest, 12 to 3, and the second, 1 to 0. The A. B. C.s hit Miller hard in the first game, twelve hits going for twenty bases. Shively got a home run to the flagpole. Keen's catch in short right also was a feature.

The second contest was a pitchers' battle between Dismukes and Miller, both pitching excellent ball. Miller came back strong in the second game, allowing but four hits. Rain stopped the second game after six innings.
