

ROYAL GIANTS IN HARLEM.

Crack Brooklyn Team Will Meet Lincoln Giants on Sunday.

The Royal Giants of Brooklyn will meet the Lincoln Giants in the first double header of a special series this Sunday at Olympic Field, 136th street and Fifth avenue. Early this season the Royals clashed with the Harlemites and the series was annexed by the Lincoln. Since then, however, the Royal Giants have improved considerably. If the Royals play up to their standard, the Lincolns will have to travel at top speed to annex the laurels.

The Lincolns are having their banner season this year. Not since the inception of the club, many years ago, has the team triumphed in as many games in one season as this year. Excellent pitching by Redding and Williams is the big factor in the club's success. Redding has pitched one and two hit games with regularity, and Williams, in addition to pitching superbly, is the team's leading punch hitter.
