SCORE 3-2 WHEN
GAME BREAKS UP

A near riot brought the Royal Giants-Poughkeepsie Cubans game at Riverview Field yesterday afternoon to an end. The noise came in the first half of the ninth and for the 'steenth time this season the umpire's life was threatened. Going into the final frame on the short end of a 3-2 score the Royals rallied. Handy, the first man up, doubled to left. Pugh stole second, bringing "Stringbean" Williams to the plate. The "elongated one" met one on the nose and sent it to right. The drive dropped in the vicinity of the right field foul line and "Billy" Beal, who was officiating, called it a foul ball. This was the signal for the riot. The Royals crowded the "ump," and for a time it looked bad for him. However, he would not change his decision and the Royals walked off the ground, thereby forfeiting the contest to the locals.

The game was one of the best of the season and was enjoyed by the handful of fans present in the grounds and the monster gathering on the hill outside the park. The contest brought together "Stringbean" Williams, the star hurler of the Royals, and Mudoz the best bet in the Henriquez stable. Although the heat was intense both pitchers heaved good ball.

The locals were first to score. In the fourth with one out Calvo singled and stole second. Louis Padron picked out one to his liking and crashed out a homer.

The visitors evened matters in the next inning on four hits and a double-steal. The locals took the lead in the eighth on Calvo's third hit, a stolen base and Hungo's double. Then came the riot.
