

Lincoln and Royals to Clash.

Tomorrow at Olympic Field, 186th Street and Fifth Avenue, the Lincoln Giants and Royal Giants meet in their first double-header for the colored championship. The feature of the game will be the first appearance of Cannonball Redding, who will be in the box for the Royal Giants, and will be opposed by his old team mate and rival, Cyclone Joe Williams, in the opening game at 1:30 P. M. In the final session Big Tom Williams, the wonder from the Chicago American Giants, will twirl for the Royals and will be opposed by Cockrell, the apthball artist of the Lincoln Giants.

Evening World Herald, New York, NY

Saturday, May 11, 1918, Page 9, Column 2