

ROYALS IN BROOKLYN.

The Bushwicks and Royal Giants again will attempt to settle the supremacy in a double-header at Dexter Park, near the Cypress Hills elevator station, on Sunday afternoon. These teams have met several times this season for an even break. Last year's series also resulted in a deadlock. Mitchell will occupy the mound for the Bushwicks in the first encounter, while Maloney will work in the second tilt. Santop, the heavy slugger of the Royals will catch.

The Sun, New York, NY

Friday, June 13, 1919, Page 19, Column 7