

HEINIE ZIMMERMAN TO PLAY.

Benton, Tesreau and Mays Also in Dyckman Oval Game.

With Heinie Zimmerman of the Giants, Jeff Tesreau, former Giant; Marty Kavanaugh, former Detroit player; Carl Mays, star hurler of the Yankees, in the lineup, Guy Empey's Treat 'Em Roughs, who meet the Bacharach Giants of Atlantic City in a double header at Dyckman Oval, near the Dyckman street subway station, to-morrow, will be able to put forth a strong defence against its strong opponent. Last week Mays dropped a fourteen inning game to the Bacharachs, 5 to 1, but Tesreau beat them, 2 to 0.

To reenforce the pitching staff Empey also has signed Rube Benton of the Giants. Rube will probably pitch the second game to-day. On Monday and Tuesday the Treat 'Em Roughs beat the Bacharach Giants in Philadelphia and in Atlantic City respectively.

The Sun, New York, NY

Sunday, October 5, 1919, Sports Page 4, Column 5