

GAMES AT EBBETS FIELD.

The International Stars will continue their series at Ebbets Field to-morrow with the Bacharach Colored Giants. The Stars will present a much stronger lineup in order to take the series. In the second game Johnny Enzmann of the Cleveland Americans will oppose Wickware. These two twirlers had a sterling pitchers' duel last Sunday and both are out to win this Sunday.

GEORGE BURNS TO PLAY.

The second double header of the series of three for the semi-professional baseball championship of the city will be played to-morrow afternoon at Dyckman Oval between Guy Empey's "Treat 'Em Rough" nine and the Lincoln Giants team. In the first game of the double bill, which starts at 2 o'clock, Jess Barnes of the Giants will oppose Cyclone Williams of the Lincolns. Williams beat Barnes last week. Larry Doyle, Frank Friach and George Burns, all of the New York Nationals, will be seen in the "Treat 'Em Roughs" lineup.

The Sun, New York, NY

Saturday, November 1, 1919, Page 16, Columns 4&5