

DYCKMAN OVAL GAMES.

Newark Stars and New London Team to Play Kingsbridge Nine.

The Newark Stars, contenders for the semi-pro championship of New Jersey, will make their first local appearance at Dyckman Oval, near the 207th street subway, this afternoon to play the Kingsbridge nine in the feature of a double header. In the first game New London will play Kingsbridge.

The Kingsbridge team, beginning with to-day's games, will be managed by Connie Savage, who handled the reins last season. Connie will take the place of Billy Jordan. Mike Finneran and Joe McGarry will pitch for Kingsbridge to-day and Joe Tee will catch.

The Sun, New York, NY

Sunday, July 14, 1918, Sports Page 7, Column 3