

THORMAHLEN IS VICTOR.

Wins for Shipbuilders Against the Royal Giants, 5 to 2.

Herb Thormahlen, former Yankee, pitched splendid ball for the nine from the Tietjen and Lang Shipyard at Nurge's Field in North Bergen yesterday afternoon and landed a victory over the Royal Giants by 5 to 2. It was the second success in two days for the home club, for on Saturday it defeated the Morse Drydock nine by 6 to 4.

The Royals yesterday used Donaldson, their leading pitcher, and he had a bad sixth, in which three runs were scored. Ping Bodie got two hits. Marty Kavanagh, fresh from a tour of the big leagues, played with the shipbuilders. The score:
