

CAMP MILLS BEATEN.

The soldiers at Camp Mills yesterday suffered their first baseball defeat of the season when they were downed by the Royal Giants at Camp Mills by 7 to 6. Ward Brennen's men played a fine brand of ball, but let the winning run come in on an error. Private Marshall did the hurling for the soldiers, while Donaldson occupied the mound for the Royals. The score:

	R	H	E
Royal Giants..	1	0	4	0 1 0 1 0 0—7 10 1
Camp Mills....	0	0	5	0 0 1 0 0 0—6 7 1

Batteries—Donaldson and Cassin; Marshall and Cold.

The Sun, New York, NY

Thursday, September 5, 1918, Page 13, Column 4