

Second Waddell to Pitch Sunday

One of the greatest pitchers in baseball will be seen in action at the Vernon Coast league park Sunday, when John Donaldson pitches for the L. A. White Sox against the Western Pool Hall club, a team made up of Coast league stars.

Donaldson is a left-hander and but for the fact that he is colored would be in the major leagues. John McGraw and Ed Walsh have claimed that Donaldson is as great a left-hander as Rube Waddell, the eccentric southpaw of the old Philadelphia Athletics.

Evening Herald, Los Angeles, CA

Wednesday, February 7, 1917, Page 12, Column 6