

San Pedro Retains Semi-Pro Honors

The San Pedro club are still the semi-pro baseball champions of Southern California. The harbor nine, aided by the star pitching and hitting of Pete Schneider of the Cincinnati Reds, defeated the L. A. White Sox on the Vernon diamond by the count of 7 to 0. Schneider allowed but four hits and slammed out a homer and a double.

John Donaldson, the colored Mathewson, was on the mound for the Sox and was hit hard. He was wild and the harbor players hit him almost at will.

Evening Herald, Los Angeles, CA

Monday, February 26, 1917, Page 10, Column 1