

Orndorff's Team to Tackle White Sox

Peeved because the team he played with last Sunday was defeated by the Los Angeles White Sox club, Jess Orndorff, former Angel catcher, today challenged the Colored Stars for a three games series.

Orndorff's challenge was accepted immediately and the series will start a week from Sunday. The games will be played at Vernon.

Orndorff will use "Lefty" McMorran on the mound but all the other players on his team will be experienced professionals.

Evening Herald, Los Angeles, CA

Tuesday, February 13, 1917, Page 1, Column 3