

Brown's Tennessee Rats, the next attraction booked by the Brandeis Stores at Rourke park, will open their two-game series Saturday, July 28. In connection with Sunday's game, July 29, Manager Bradford will give Omaha's lovers of athletics one of the greatest bills ever staged locally, consisting of a tug-of-war, between the recently organized Dunbar club and the Nonpareils; a wrestling bout between Tom Wray, middleweight champion, and Jack Murray, shadow wrestling, by the wonderful Reno, and other events that will lend to make the afternoon's entertainment a howling success.
