

Nebraska Power Team Plays Armours Today

The Armour semi-pro ball team will tangle with the Nebraska Power company team at Rourke park this afternoon at 3:15. Next Sunday, the semis will go to Shenandoah, Ia., for a game against the club of that town. A week later they will go to Griswold, Ia., and on Saturday, May 31, and Sunday, June 1, they will play the Tennessee Rats at Rourke park. Manager Deleware is in communication with Rube Foster of Chicago, who is handling the destinies of eight different colored ball clubs, for the All-Nations and Leland Giants, for games in Omaha.

The Armours and the Nebraska Power company will present the following line-up for this afternoon's game:

ARMOURS:	NEB. POWER CO.:
J. Collins, McGrath. lf.....	Kemmy
Dygert..... cf.....	Christiansen
Graves..... rf....	Wolf or Collins
Ryan..... 1b.....	Norgard
Otto Williams..... 2b.....	Gernandt
Corcoran..... 3b.....	McAndrews
M. Collins..... ss.....	Mancuso
Dyke, Moore, Potach p	Morgansen, Moylen
Harry Williams..... c.....	Yost or Smith

It will be noted that the Armours have signed McGrath, who has just returned from "over there," and also Otto Williams, who has had several years' major league experience, playing with the Cubs and St. Louis teams.

Omaha Daily Bee, Omaha, NE

Sunday, May 4, 1919, Page 10-C, Column 3